

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Alabama	Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (AADC)	The Alabama Alcohol and Drug Abuse Association (AADAA) issues private certifications for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The AADAA accepts completion of a master's degree in a behavioral science, plus 180 clock hours in the IC&RC Domains, 6 hours of ethics, and 4 hours of AIDS/HIV education.	2,000 hours AADC IC&RC exam
Alaska	Chemical Dependency Counselor II designation	The Alaska Commission for Behavioral Health Certification issues private Certification for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The Alaskan Commission accepts completion of a degree in a relevant field, such as additions, to include coursework in specific content areas.	5 years (10,000 hours) NAADAC Level II, or MAC exam
American Samoa	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in American Samoa.	N/A
Arizona	Licensed Independent Substance Abuse Counselor	Arizona accepts a 36 quarter credit master's degree in a behavioral health science program, meeting specific content areas, from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3200 hours of supervised work experience in substance abuse counseling in no less than 24 months. NCAC I, NCAC II or MAC exam
Arkansas	Licensed Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselor designation	Arkansas accepts completion of a master's degree in the health or behavioral sciences field from a regionally accredited university, which includes 270 hours of education.	3 years or 6,000 hours of supervised experience. Supervised experience must be approved and documented by a Certified Clinical Supervisor in good standing with the Board.

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
California	Licensed Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor	There are four certifying organizations with authority to certify counselors in California for the purpose of working in a facility licensed or certified by the Department of Health Care Services. The California Consortium of Addiction Programs and Professionals (CCAPP) is the certifying agency researched. There is no state-issued credential. CCAPP accepts a minimum of a master’s degree in behavioral science with a clinical application from a regionally accredited college or university that includes 300 clock hours of specific education and a supervised practicum of at least 300 hours. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	4,000 hours work experience, 2080 or more documented hours of work experience IC&RC AADC Exam
Colorado	Licensed Addiction Counselor	Colorado regulations indicate Capella’s MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Colorado requires a master's degree in behavioral health sciences with specific coursework/training completed. Capella's courses do not fulfill Colorado's training requirements and learners who do not hold the CAC III will need to complete significant training hours outside of Capella.	N/A
Connecticut	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor	Connecticut accepts completion of a master's degree in counseling from a regionally accredited university, which includes 360 hours of education most of which must relate to alcohol and drug counseling.	Work experience or internship of 6000 hours. A master's degree may be substituted for 2000 hours.

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Delaware	Licensed Chemical Dependency Professional	Delaware requires Licensed Chemical Dependency Professional applicants to complete a master's degree and already hold a Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC) credential issued by the Delaware Certification Board. The Delaware Certification Board requires CADC applicants to complete at least a bachelor's degree in a relevant field from a regionally accredited university and 300 hours of education in specific content areas.	3,200 hours in no less than 2 years 3,200 hours in no less than 2 years
District of Columbia	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in District of Columbia. Learners who are interested in pursuing a District of Columbia professional license should contact the relevant state board. District of Columbia Board of Addiction Counselors 899 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, DC 20002 (877) 672-2174 doh@dc.gov http://doh.dc.gov/node/118472	N/A
Florida	Master’s Level Certified Addiction Professionals (MCAP)	The Florida Certification Board issues private certifications for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The Board requires a master's degree with 350 hours in specific content areas. Learners will need to complete 2 hours of domestic violence training outside of Capella.	4,000 hours, 2 years of full-time addiction-specific, professional-level work experience (40-hours per week/2,080 hours per year) 200 hours of direct one-on-one clinical supervision of the applicant’s performance of addiction-related services at the level expected of a MCAP. Florida Master’s Level Certified Addiction Professional exam (required) IC&RC ADC exam (only required for those seeking international reciprocity)

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Georgia	Certified Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor designation	The Alcohol & Drug Abuse Certification Board of Georgia's (ADACBG) issues addiction related credentials at different education levels. There is no state-issued credential. ADACBG requires completion of a master's degree in a behavioral science, and 300 clock hours in the IC&RC Domains. Learners will need to complete 2 additional clock hours in telemental health course outside of Capella.	2 years, 4000 hours NCAC I or NCAC II exam
Guam	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Guam.	N/A
Hawaii	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Hawaii. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Hawaii professional license should contact the relevant state board. Hawaii Department of Health - Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division 601 Kamokila Blvd. Room 360, Kapolei, Hawai'i, 96707 808-692-7506 webmail@doh.hawaii.gov http://health.hawaii.gov/substance-abuse/	N/A
Idaho	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Idaho. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Idaho professional license should contact the relevant state board. Idaho Board of Alcohol/Drug Counselor Certification (IBADCC) 1404 N Main Street, Ste 102, Meridian, ID 83642 208-468-8802 ibadcc@ibadcc.org http://ibadcc.org/	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Illinois	Certified Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor	The Illinois Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Professional Certification Association issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The CAADC requires a master's degree in behavioral science from a regionally accredited university, and 180 hours of education in alcohol and drug counseling. Learner will need to complete 45 hours each in two content areas outside of Capella. "Addiction Treatment Services for Women and/or their Families" "Addiction Treatment Services for Adolescents and/or their Families"	1 year (2,000 hours) of paid supervised AOD specific work experience in the past four years ICRC Advanced AADC exam
Indiana	Licensed Clinical Addiction Counselor	Indiana regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Indiana requires at least 60 quarter credits of unique coursework, including at least 700 hours of internship completed in the program.	N/A
Iowa	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Iowa. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Iowa professional license should contact the relevant state board. Iowa Board of Certification 225 NW School St, Ankeny, IA 50023 515-965-5509 http://www.iowabc.org	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Kansas	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Kansas. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Kansas professional license should contact the relevant state board. Kansas Behavioral Sciences Regulatory Board 700 SW Harrison St, Ste 420, Topeka, KS 66603-3929 785-296-3240 https://ksbsrb.ks.gov/professions/addiction-counselors	N/A
Kentucky	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Kentucky. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Kentucky professional license should contact the relevant state board. Kentucky Board of Certification of Alcohol and Drug Counselors 911 Leawood Drive, Frankfort, KY 40601 Keisha Franklin, Administrative Assistant 225-361-0698 keisha.franklin@la-adra.org http://adc.ky.gov/Pages/default.aspx	N/A
Louisiana	Licensed Addiction Counselor (LAC)	Louisiana requires a master's degree in behavioral science from a regionally accredited university and 270 hours of education.	2,000 hours (one year) of supervised work experience providing addictive disorder counseling services IC&RC exam
Maine	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC) license	Maine regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Maine accepts completion of a master's degree in addiction counseling.	IC&RC-ADC and Advanced ADC exam

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Maryland	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Maryland. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Maryland professional license should contact the relevant state board. Maryland Board of Professional Counselors 201 W Preston St, Baltimore, Maryland, 21201 410-767-6500 dhmh.healthmd@maryland.gov http://dhmh.maryland.gov/bopc/Pages/Index.aspx	N/A
Massachusetts	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor I	Massachusetts accepts completion of a master's degree in addiction studies that meets certain coursework requirements.	6,000 hours of supervised alcohol and drug counseling work experience
Michigan	Certified Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor	The Michigan Certification Board for Addiction Professionals issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The CAADC requires a master's degree in addiction science, and 180 hours of education in substance use disorders. Learners will need to complete 6 hours in a Board-approved face-to-face ethics training course outside of Capella.	100 hours of direct supervision in SUD services, post-Master’s degree, specific to the IC&RC/AADC Performance Domains (10 hours in each Domain) 2,000 hours, full or part-time clinical counseling experience, post Master’s degree, working with substance use disorder or co-occurring disorder clients at a State of Michigan licensed substance use disorder service provider program, or MCBAP approved alternative provider IC&RC/AADC, Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor exam
Minnesota	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC)	Minnesota requires a bachelor's degree, which includes 270 hours of education in specific content areas and an 880 hour practicum. Capella learners must add additional practicum and/or internship hours to meet requirements for state licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	Complete 2,000 hours of post degree supervised professional practice NCAC I or NCAC II exam

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Mississippi	Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor II	Mississippi regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Mississippi Association of Addiction Professionals (MAAP) issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. MAAP limits the amount of online education to 15% of the total education hours.	N/A
Missouri	Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC)	The Missouri Credentialing Board (MCB) issues a private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state-issued credential. The MCB accepts completion of a master's degree in chemical dependency and 300 hours of education. Learners will need to complete a 6 hour in-person ethics course outside of Capella.	2000 hours of applicable work experience within the last 10 years IC&RC International ADC exam
Montana	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Montana. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Montana professional license should contact the relevant state board. Montana Licensed Addiction Counselors Program 301 South Park, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 200513, Helena, MT 59620-0513 406-841-2203 DLIBSDLicensingUnitC@mt.gov http://boards.bsd.dli.mt.gov/bbh	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Nebraska	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC)	Nebraska accepts completion of a master's degree in addiction studies that meets certain coursework requirements. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	6,000 hours of supervised clinical work experience providing alcohol and drug counseling services to alcohol and other drug clients for remuneration max 40 hours per week or 2,000 hours per year Master's or higher with a major in counseling, addictions, social work, sociology, or psychology may be substituted for 4,000 hours International Written Examination for Alcohol and Drug Counselors of the IC&RC/AODA and Case Presentation Method (CPM) Oral Examination of the IC&RC/AODA
Nevada	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC)	Nevada regulations indicate Capella’s MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure as a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC). Nevada requires a master's degree in a social science field, which includes counseling alcohol and substance abusers, from an accredited university. Note Capella's MS in Addiction Studies program will not to meet the requirements for a Licensed Clinical Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor (LCADAC) credential. Nevada requires a master's degree that includes comprehensive coursework in clinical mental health, including diagnosis of mental health disorders.	2,000 hours of supervised, postgraduate counseling of alcohol and drug abusers IC& RC Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (AADC) and National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE) (Cannot take until 1,000 hours of supervised experience is completed)

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
New Hampshire	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in New Hampshire. Learners who are interested in pursuing a New Hampshire professional license should contact the relevant state board. New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services Office of Professional Licensure and Certification 121 South Fruit Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603) 271-2152 nhladc@opl.nh.gov https://www.oplc.nh.gov/alcohol-other-drug/	N/A
New Jersey	Licensed Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LCADC)	New Jersey requires completion of a master's degree in addictions or counseling related field meeting specific content areas. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Applicants must also meet all the requirements of the Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor credential. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years of supervised work experience IC&RC exam
New Mexico	Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor (LADAC)	New Mexico regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. New Mexico accepts completion of a master's degree from an accredited institution with 90 clock hours of education in the areas of alcohol, drug, and counseling.	1 year and 1000 client contact hours under appropriate supervision of experience in the practice of alcohol and drug abuse counseling 50 hours of face-to-face supervision. NCAC I exam
New York	Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor (CASAC)	New York regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program is not approved in New York.	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
North Carolina	Licensed Clinical Addictions Specialist	North Carolina regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. North Carolina's Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board accepts completion of a master's degree in addictions from a regionally accredited university that includes 180 hours of substance abuse specific training.	IC&RC AADC exam
North Dakota	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in North Dakota. Learners who are interested in pursuing a North Dakota professional license should contact the relevant state board. North Dakota Board of Addiction Counseling Examiners 505 Kansas City Street, Rapid City, SD 57701 701-255-1439 board@ndbace.org http://www.ndbace.org/	N/A
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Northern Mariana Islands.	N/A
Ohio	Licensed Independent Chemical Dependency Counselor (LICDC)	Ohio regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Ohio requires a master's degree with 60 quarter credits with coursework in specific content areas.	N/A
Oklahoma	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC)	Oklahoma regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program does not have coursework to fulfill Oklahoma's specific content area requirements.	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Oregon	Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (all levels)	Oregon regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state issued license. Capella's program does not have coursework to fulfill Oregon's specific content area requirements and cannot fulfill Oregon's in-person requirements.	N/A
Pennsylvania	Certified Advanced Drug and Alcohol Counselor	Pennsylvania regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. The Pennsylvania Certification Board issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state issued license. The Board requires a master's degree from a regionally accredited university and 180 hours of education relevant to the field of addiction.	1 year (2000 hours) of employment as a counselor IC&RC exam for Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselors
Puerto Rico	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Puerto Rico.	N/A
Rhode Island	Licensed Chemical Dependency Professional (LCDP)	Rhode Island requires applicants hold the Advanced Chemical Dependency Professional (ACDP) credential from the Rhode Island Certification Board to qualify for licensure. The ACDP requires 180 clock hours of education in specific content areas and at least 2000 hours of post-degree work experience. Learners will need to complete 6 clock hours of Confidentiality/Minors and HIPAA coursework or training outside Capella. Coursework may be taken after degree conferral.	None

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
South Carolina	Certified Addictions Counselor II	South Carolina regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. The South Carolina Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors issues private certification for addictions professionals. There is no state issued license. The Association requires a bachelor's degree or higher in a human services field from a regionally accredited university, including 450 clocks hours of education related to the core functions.	4 years full time or 8,000 hours experience in the Alcohol and Other Drug Counseling Core NCAC I or NCAC II exam
South Dakota	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in South Dakota. Learners who are interested in pursuing a South Dakota professional license should contact the relevant state board. South Dakota Certification Board for Alcohol & Drug Professionals 3101 W. 41st St. Suite 205, Sioux Falls, SD 57105 Tina Nelson, Administrative Officer 605.332.2645 bapp@midconetwork.com http://dss.sd.gov/licensingboards/bapp.aspx	N/A
Tennessee	Licensed Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor	Tennessee regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Tennessee accepts completion of a master's degree in a behavioral health related field from a regionally accredited university.	1 year of full time experience or 2000 hours of experience while providing alcohol and drug abuse counseling services under the direct supervision of a Qualified Clinical Supervisor who meets the requirements of the rules of the Board NCAC I or NCAC II exam

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Texas	Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor (LCDC)	Texas regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Texas accepts completion of a master's degree related to chemical dependency counseling.	4,000 hours of approved supervised experience working with chemically dependent individuals. The department may waive the 4,000 hours of supervised work experience for individuals who hold a masters or doctoral degree in social work or a counseling-related field and have 48 semester hours of graduate-level courses. An applicant for waiver shall submit an official college transcript with the official seal of the college and the signature of the registrar, and any other related documentation requested by the department. IC&RC Examination for Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselors
US Virgin Islands	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in US Virgin Islands. Learners who are interested in pursuing a US Virgin Islands professional license should contact the relevant state board. V.I. Board of Licensed Counselors & Examiners Property & Procurement Building 8201 Subbase, Suite 1 St. Thomas, VI 00802-5826 OR V.I. Board of Licensed Counselors & Examiners Department of Licensing and Consumer Affairs Golden Rock Shopping Center, Suite #9 Christiansted, VI 00820-4311	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Utah	Licensed Substance Abuse Counselor	Utah accepts a bachelor's or higher that includes 300 hours of substance abuse disorder education and a supervised practicum of at least 350 hours. Capella learners must add additional practicum and/or internship hours to meet requirements for state licensure. If not completed as part of the undergraduate program, Learners will need to complete coursework to fulfill the "Human Development Across the Lifespan" and "General Psychology" content areas. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	4,000 hours of practice Licensed Utah Substance Use Disorder Counselors (SUDC) who submitted 2,000 hours of experience with their SUDC application only need to document 2,000 additional hours NCAC I or NCAC II exam
Vermont	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Vermont. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Vermont professional license should contact the relevant state board. Vermont Alcohol and Drug Abuse Certification Board 89 Main Street, 3rd Floor, Montpelier VT 05620-3402 802-828-2390 diane.lafaille@sec.state.vt.us https://www.sec.state.vt.us/professional-regulation/list-of-professions/alcohol-drug-abuse-counselors.aspx	N/A
Virginia	Licensed Substance Abuse Treatment Practitioner	Virginia regulations indicate Capella's MS Addiction Studies program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Virginia requires at least 90 quarter credits of specific graduate study from a regionally accredited university.	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Washington	Chemical Dependency Professional (CDP)	Washington regulations indicate Capella’s MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Washington requires at least an associate degree in a behavioral sciences field with at least 45 quarter credits related to chemical dependency. Note Effective July 15th, 2020 Washington no longer requires completion of 4 hours of AIDS education.	1500 hours of chemical dependency counseling for individuals who possess a master or doctoral degree in human services or a related field from an approved school NCAC I, NCAC II, or MAC exam
West Virginia	Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (IC&RC organization)	West Virginia regulations indicate Capella’s MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. The West Virginia Certification Board for Addiction and Prevention Professionals issues private certification. There is no state issued license. The Board requires a master's degree in a behavioral science field from a regionally accredited university and 180 hours of education relevant to the field of addiction.	3 years direct experience of which 1 year must be post-masters 2000 hours of supervised ADC experience IC&RC International AADC exam
Wisconsin	N/A	Capella University has not determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Wisconsin. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Wisconsin professional license should contact the relevant state board. Wisconsin Department of Regulation and Licensing - Substance Abuse Counselor PO Box 8935, Madison, WI 53708-8935 (608) 266-2112 dsps@wisconsin.gov http://www.dsps.wi.gov/Default.aspx?Page=64630e95-e33c-4032-99c7-a3aced7f8a79	N/A

MS Addiction Studies

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state’s specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's MS in Addiction Studies. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Program Retired: April 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Wyoming	Licensed Addictions Therapist (LAT)	Wyoming regulations indicate Capella’s MS Addiction Studies program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Wyoming requires completion of a graduate degree in addictionology or chemical dependency from a regionally accredited university.	3,000 hours of post-degree supervised clinical training/work experience in addictions therapy under the direct supervision of a Designated Qualified Clinical Supervisor 1,200 hours direct client contact hours 100 post-graduate hours of clinical supervision with a Designated Qualified Clinical Supervisor NCAC I, NCAC II, or MAC exam