

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Alabama	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Alabama regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Alabama accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years full time and at least 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Alaska	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Alaska regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Alaska accepts completion of a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that meets certain coursework and internship requirements.	1,500 Hours AMFTRB exam and state law/ethics exam
American Samoa	N/A	American Samoa does not currently offer a state license in marriage and family therapy. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.	N/A
Arizona	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Arizona regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Arizona accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,200 hours AMFTRB exam
Arkansas	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Arkansas regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Arkansas accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas and credit hour licensure requirements. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3 years - 3,000 hours AMFTRB exam
California	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	California regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. California accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that meets specific content areas and a 9-quarter credit practicum. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Capella learners must add additional practicum credits to meet the 9-quarter credit practicum requirement for state licensure. The Board of Behavioral Science (BBS) requires California-specific training for licensure. Learners can go to the California BBS website for the CEU providers offering this training. This unique training can be completed after graduating for out-of-state program completers, like Capella graduates. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3,000 hours California Law and Ethicsexam and LMFT California Clinical exam
Colorado	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Colorado regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Colorado accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and at least 2,000 hours Jurisprudence exam and AMFTRB exam
Connecticut	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Connecticut regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Connecticut accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	1000 hours earned over at least 12 months AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Delaware	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Delaware regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Delaware accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3200 hours over 2-4 years AMFTRB exam
District of Columbia	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	The District of Columbia regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. The District of Columbia accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2,000 Hours and two years within 5 years of graduation AMFTRB exam
Florida	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Florida regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Florida requires completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	1,500 hours and 2 years AMFTRB Exam
Georgia	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Georgia regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Georgia requires completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university, 500 hours of direct clinical experience, and 100 hours of supervision. Georgia allows 200 hours of the 500 hours of direct clinical experience to be completed after graduation. Capella learners can choose to complete an additional 200 hours of direct clinical hours during the programs site-based learning experience or complete an additional 200 hours of direct clinical experience after graduation. 100 hours of American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT) supervision provided by a Capella faculty member can be counted towards the 100 hours of supervision requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3 years/2,500 hours of direct clinical experience required total. 500 hours direct clinical experience may be accrued pre-degree. Remaining 2 years/2,000 hours direct clinical experience shall be accrued post-degree. Hours must be obtained in no less than 3 years and no more than 5 years. 200 hours of supervision required total. 100 hours of supervision shall be provided by an AAMFT approved supervisor. AAMFT supervisor may be a Capella faculty member. 50 hours minimum must be individual supervision. 50 hours maximum may be group supervision. 5 hours minimum of supervision per 100 hours of direct clinical experience. 100 hours of supervision may be obtained pre-degree. Register and sit for the NMFT exam following Board review of application and approval to take the exam.
Guam	Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT)	Guam regulations indicate Capella's MS in Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS in Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Guam accepts completion of a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university with 90-quarter credits in specific coursework. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas and credit hour licensure requirements. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3,000 hours of clinical experience 100 hours of supervision AMFTRB Exam
Hawaii	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Hawaii regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Hawaii accepts completion of a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that meets specific content areas.	1,000 hours of direct clinical experience 200 hours clinical supervision in no less than 24 months AMFTRB Exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Idaho	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	Idaho regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Idaho accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 year and 3,000 hours 200 hours of supervision NMFT exam
Illinois	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Illinois regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Illinois accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	1000 face to face, direct hours 350 of which must be in conjoint (systems) therapy 200 hours of supervision, At least 100 of the 200 hours of clinical supervision must be completed with a marriage and family therapy supervisor who has met certain requirements AMFTRB exam
Indiana	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Indiana regulations indicate Capella's MS in Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS in Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Indiana accepts completion of a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that contains certain coursework, and includes 500 hours in marriage and family services, including at least 400 hours of direct client contact, of which 200 hours must be relational, and 100 hours of supervision from a board- approved licensed marriage and family therapist supervisor. Capella learners must complete an additional 200 direct client contact hours, 100 of which must be relational. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 1,000 hours; 50% of which is with met services (systems). 200 hours of supervision; 100 of which must be individual AMFTRB exam
Iowa	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Iowa regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 80-quarter credits master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet the credit hour licensure requirement. Learners can choose any quarter credits of PSY, COUN, MFT or select HS courses. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 3,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Kansas	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Kansas regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Kansas accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 4,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Kentucky	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Kentucky regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Kentucky accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Louisiana	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Louisiana regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Louisiana accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university and 500 supervised direct client contact hours, 250 hours must be with couples and/or families. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet 90 total quarter credits for licensure. Learners can choose any PSY, COUN, or MFT courses. Learners can choose select HS courses. Capella learners will need to complete 500 supervised direct client contact hours, 250 hours must be with couples and/or families. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Maine	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Maine. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Maine professional license should contact the relevant state board. Board of Counseling Professionals Licensure 35 State House Station, Augusta, ME 04333-0035 Phone: (207) 624-8623 Fax: (207) 624-8637 TTY users call Maine relay 711 Cecile Sirois, Professional Licensing Supervisor counsel.board@maine.gov https://www.maine.gov/pfr/professionallicensing/	N/A
Maryland	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Maryland regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Maryland accepts completion of a 90-quarter credit graduate degree in marriage and family therapy that meets specific coursework and internship requirements. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 2,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Massachusetts	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Massachusetts regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Massachusetts accepts completion of a 90-quarter credit graduate degree in marriage and family therapy that meets specific coursework and internship requirements. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet the credit hour licensure requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years or 3,360 hours AMFTRB exam
Michigan	Limited and Full Marriage and Family Therapist License (LMFT)	Michigan regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Michigan accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	1,000 hours AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Minnesota	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Minnesota regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Minnesota accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam and MN Oral Law and ethics exam
Mississippi	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Mississippi regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Mississippi accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university and 500 face-to-face clinical client contact hours which includes 200 relational contact hours and no less than 1 hour of supervision for each 6 hours of clinical client contact. Capella learners will need to complete 500 face-to-face clinical client contact hours which includes 200 relational contact hours and no less than 1 hour of supervision for each 6 hours of clinical client contact. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years, which includes 1,000 hours of face-to-face client contact AMFTRB exam
Missouri	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Missouri regulations indicate Capella's MS in Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Missouri accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Montana	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Montana regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Montana requires completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university with specific internship and supervision requirements. Capella learners must ensure 250 internship hours are with couples and families and 75 hours of their 100 hours of supervision is individual supervision using a 5:1 ratio of client contact hours to supervision hours. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3,000 clinical hours within 5 years 1,000 hours of client contact accrued post-degree Up to 500 client contact hours earned during the program can be applied toward the total 1,000 hours 50% serving couples and families 5:1 ratio of client contact hours to supervision hours 200 hours of supervision total 75% individual supervision (80 hours per supervisor) 50% of supervision must involve raw clinical data (live observation, one-way mirror, live-feed camera, videotape, or audiotape) AMFTRB exam
Nebraska	Provisionally Licensed Mental Health Practitioner (PLMHP) Licensed Mental Health Practitioner (LMHC) Certified Marriage and Family Therapist (CMFT)	Nebraska regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Nebraska requires a Licensed Mental Health Practitioner (LMHP) license and a Certified Marriage and Family Therapist (CMFT) certification to use the title of "marriage and family therapist." Nebraska LMHP applicants must first obtain the Nebraska Provisionally Licensed Mental Health Practitioner (PLMHP) credential prior to seeking the LMHP. For a PLMHP, Nebraska requires applicants to complete a COAMFTE equivalent master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university, and complete 300 clock hours of supervised direct client contact with 50% individuals and 50% couples and families. For a LMHP, Nebraska requires applicants to obtain 3,000 hours of clinical experience as a PLMHP following receipt of the master's degree. Applicants must also obtain a passing score on the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) examination.	3,000 hours AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Nevada	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Nevada regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Nevada accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3,000 hours within 2 years 1500 direct-client contact 300 hours of supervision AMFTRB exam
New Hampshire	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	New Hampshire regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will not meet New Hampshire's residency requirement.	N/A
New Jersey	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	New Jersey regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. New Jersey accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3,000 hours, 2 years supervised MFT experience. 1,500 hours, 1 year counseling experience (can be in MFT). Min 50 hours face-to-face supervision, 1 hour/week, no more than 25 hours may be in group supervision per year. Max 1,150 hours MFT client contact per year. Max 300 hours "other work related activities" (client record maintenance, appt schedules, prep, etc.) per year. No more than 30 hours earned per week. No more than 125 hours earned per month. AMFTRB exam
New Mexico	Licensed Marriage Family Therapist (LMFT)	New Mexico regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. New Mexico accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam
New York	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	New York regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. New York accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	1,500 hours AMFTRB exam
North Carolina	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist Associate (LMFTA) Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	North Carolina regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Carolina requires licensure as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT). North Carolina LMFT applicants must first obtain the North Carolina Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist Associate (LMFTA) credential prior to seeking the LMFT credential. For a LMFTA, North Carolina requires completion of a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that meets specific coursework requirements. Capella learners seeking initial licensure as a LMFTA will need to add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. For a LMFT, North Carolina requires applicants to obtain 1,500 hours of clinical experience as a LMFTA following receipt of the masters' degree. Applicants must also obtain a passing score on the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) examination. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	1,500 hours AMFTRB exam
North Dakota	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	North Dakota regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. North Dakota accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2,000 hours 500 hours from a COAMFTE grad program can count toward the total 2,000 hours AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Northern Mariana Islands.	N/A
Ohio	Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT)	Ohio regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Ohio accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Oklahoma	Licensed Marital and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Oklahoma regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Oklahoma accepts completion of a graduate degree in marriage and family therapy that meets specific coursework and internship requirements.	2 years and 1,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Oregon	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Oregon regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Oregon accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3 years and 2,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Pennsylvania	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Pennsylvania regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Pennsylvania accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet the credit hour licensure requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	3,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Puerto Rico	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Puerto Rico.	N/A
Rhode Island	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Rhode Island regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will not meet Rhode Island's practicum and internship requirements.	N/A
South Carolina	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	South Carolina regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Carolina accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university that meets specific coursework requirements. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 1,500 hours AMFTRB exam
South Dakota	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	South Dakota regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. South Dakota accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,700 direct client contact hours 200 hours of supervision, 100 must be individual AMFTRB exam
Tennessee	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Tennessee regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Tennessee accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 1,000 direct hours 200 hours of supervision AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Texas	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Texas regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Texas accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,000 hours. 1500 hours direct contact, 750 hours must be couples/families. 200 hours of supervision; 100 hours individual. 50 hours of post-grad supervision must be individual. AMFTRB exam and MFT Jurisprudence exam
US Virgin Islands	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in US Virgin Islands. Learners who are interested in pursuing a US Virgin Islands professional license should contact the relevant state board. V.I. Board of Licensed Counselors & Examiners Property & Procurement Building 8201 Subbase, Suite 1, St. Thomas, VI 00802-5826 OR V.I. Board of Licensed Counselors & Examiners Department of Licensing and Consumer Affairs Golden Rock Shopping Center, Suite #9, Christiansted, VI 00820-4311	N/A
Utah	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Utah regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Utah accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 4,000 hours 100 hours of direct supervision 1000 direct hours of mental health therapy; 500 must be with couples/families AMFTRB exam
Vermont	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Vermont regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Vermont accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,000 hours from a systems perspective 2000 hours must be direct hours; 50% of which must be with couples/families 100 hours of supervision; 50 hours must be individual AMFTRB exam
Virginia	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Virginia regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university with a supervised internship of 600 hours, which includes 240 hours of direct client contact of which 200 hours shall be with couples and families. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet the 90-quarter credit licensure requirement. Capella learners must ensure 200 of their direct contact site-based learning hours are with couples and families. Capella learners must have 600 total supervised internship hours to meet state licensure requirements. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 4,000 hours. 900 internship hours from a COAMFTE grad program can count toward the total 4,000 hours. AMFTRB exam

MS in Marriage & Family Therapy

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

This document utilized COAMFTE standards version 12.5, as interpreted by Capella University, to determine state-specific professional licensure outcomes.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Washington	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Washington regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Washington accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,000 hours 500 direct hours credited from a COAMFTE program AMFTRB exam
West Virginia	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	West Virginia regulations indicate completing Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. West Virginia accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited 90-quarter credit master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet the credit hour licensure requirement Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	2 years and 3,000 hours May receive a 600 hour credit for work in practicum and internship AMFTRB exam
Wisconsin	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Wisconsin regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Wisconsin accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3,000 hours AMFTRB exam
Wyoming	Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT)	Wyoming regulations indicate Capella's MS Marriage and Family Therapy program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Wyoming accepts completion of a COAMFTE accredited master's degree in marriage and family therapy from a regionally accredited university.	3,000 hours AMFTRB exam