

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Alabama	Licensed Psychologist	Alabama regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Alabama's residency requirement.	N/A
Alaska	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Alaska. Learners who are interested in pursuing an Alaska professional license should contact the relevant state board. THE BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGISTS AND PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATE EXAMINERS PO Box 110806, Juneau, AK 99811-0806 Logan Bugayong, Licensing Examiner (907) 465-1074 BoardofPsychologists@Alaska.Gov https://www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/cbpl/ProfessionalLicensing/BoardofPsychologists.aspx	N/A
American Samoa	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in American Samoa. Learners who are interested in pursuing an American Samoa professional license should contact the relevant state board. American Samoa Health Services Regulatory Board Pago Pago, AS 96799 Margaret Sesepasara, Executive Secretary 684.633.1222	N/A
Arizona	Psychologist	Arizona regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Arizona requires a doctoral degree in psychology with coursework in specific content areas, a supervised internship, and a residency year.	3,000 hours - 1,500 predoctoral and 1,500 postdoctoral (or other in-degree options). Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the State Jurisprudence exam.
Arkansas	Psychologist	Arkansas regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Arkansas' residency requirement.	N/A
California	Psychologist	California regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. California requires completion of a doctorate degree in psychology from a regionally accredited university and specific training and coursework. Capella learners must add additional course(s) to meet state-specific content areas for licensure. The California Board of Psychology requires specific training for licensure. Capella graduates can complete this training after degree conferral. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	Two years (3,000 hours) of supervised professional experience, at least 1,500 of which must be completed post-degree. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the California Psychology Laws and Ethics Examination (CPLEE).
Colorado	Psychologist	Colorado regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Colorado requires a doctoral degree from a graduate training program that fulfilled the equivalency degree requirements used to define a psychology graduate training program. An applicant asserting a program equivalent to an APA-accredited program in psychology must furnish to the Board evidence in support of the equivalency. Evidence may include narrative descriptions of course-work, institutional documents published contemporaneously with the applicant's enrollment, appropriate certifications or affidavits from university officials, dissertation abstracts, and any other evidence the applicant deems useful. The Board may request additional information from the applicant.	1 year and 1,500 hours. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the State Jurisprudence exam.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Connecticut	Licensed Psychologist	Connecticut regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Connecticut's accreditation or residency requirements.	N/A
Delaware	Psychologist	Delaware regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Delaware requires completion of a doctoral degree that is designed to prepare and train psychologists. Capella learners will need to add additional course(s) to meet specific content areas. Delaware requires at least one year's residency at the educational institution granting the doctoral degree. Learners should confirm with the Delaware Board of Examiners of Psychologists that Capella's Year-in-Residence is acceptable for licensing purposes.	1,500 hours of post graduate and not less than 1 year. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP).
District of Columbia	Psychologist	The District of Columbia's regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet the District of Columbia's accreditation requirements.	N/A
Florida	Psychologist	Florida regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Florida's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Georgia	Psychologist	Georgia regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Georgia's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Guam	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Guam. Learners who are interested in pursuing an Guam professional license should contact the relevant state board. Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners 194 Hernan Cortez Avenue, Terlaje Professional Building, Suite 213, Hagatna, Guam, 96910 Rosemary Carman (+1 671) 735-7407 rosemary.carman@dphss.guam.gov https://guamhplo.org/gbahe	N/A
Hawaii	Psychologist	Hawaii regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Hawaii requires completion of a doctorate degree in psychology from a regionally accredited university with coursework in specific content areas. Capella learners will need to add additional course(s) to meet specific content areas. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	1,900 hours/one year of a supervised experience in health service in psychology in an internship or residency program. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP).
Idaho	Psychologist	Idaho regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Idaho's residency requirement.	N/A

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Illinois	Clinical Psychologist	Illinois regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Illinois requires a doctoral program that is equivalent to a clinical psychology program, with coursework in specific content areas and a one year residence.	2 years, 3,500 hours. At least 1 year, 1,750 hours must be accrued post-degree. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the Illinois State Jurisprudence exam.
Indiana	Psychologist	Indiana regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Indiana's residency requirement.	N/A
Iowa	Psychologist	Iowa regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Iowa's accreditation requirement. Iowa residents are not eligible to enroll in Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program.	N/A
Kansas	Psychologist	Kansas regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Kansas's residency requirement.	N/A
Kentucky	Licensed Psychologist	Kentucky regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Kentucky requires completion of a doctorate degree in psychology from a regionally accredited university which includes specific coursework, a supervised pre-doctoral internship, and a residency year.	2 years, 3600 hours. 1 year predoctoral internship, minimum 1,800 hours with 100 hours of supervision. Other 1,800 hours may be pre or post doctoral or combination. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP).
Louisiana	Psychologist	Louisiana regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Louisiana's residency requirement.	N/A
Maine	Psychologist	Maine regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Maine's accreditation or residency requirements.	N/A
Maryland	Psychologist	Maryland regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Maryland's accreditation requirement. Maryland residents are not eligible to enroll in Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program.	N/A
Massachusetts	Psychologist	Massachusetts regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Massachusetts's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Michigan	Psychologist	Michigan regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Michigan's accreditation requirement.	N/A

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Minnesota	Licensed Psychologist	Minnesota regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Minnesota requires a doctoral degree with a major in psychology from a regionally accredited institution with course work in specific content areas and 384 clock hours in residence. Capella learners will need to add an additional course to meet the residency requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.	One full year of post degree supervised employment or the equivalent in part-time employment. Employment shall consist of a minimum of 1,800 hours of actual work experience that are accrued in no less than 12 months and in no more than 30 months from the first date of employment. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the Professional Responsibility Exam (PRE).
Mississippi	Psychologist	Mississippi regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Mississippi's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Missouri	Psychologist	Missouri regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Missouri's residency requirement.	N/A
Montana	Psychologist	Montana regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Montana's residency requirement.	N/A
Nebraska	Licensed Psychologist	Nebraska regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Nebraska's residency requirement	N/A
Nevada	Licensed Psychologist	Nevada regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Nevada's residency requirement.	N/A
New Hampshire	Psychologist	New Hampshire regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet New Hampshire's residency requirement.	N/A
New Jersey	Psychologist	New Jersey regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet New Jersey's accreditation or residency requirements.	N/A
New Mexico	Psychologist	New Mexico regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet New Mexico's accreditation requirement.	N/A

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
New York	Psychologist	New York regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New York accepts completion of a doctoral degree in psychology from a regionally accredited institution whose program is substantially equivalent to a New York State registered program. Substantially equivalent programs must include at least 3 years of full-time study and at least 45 quarter credit hours of coursework in specific content areas and one year of practicum or internship. Capella's program is not a New York State registered program. Capella graduates will need to submit evidence that the program is substantially equivalent in design, scope, content and resources to a New York State-registered program. The state regulates the provision of professional services which can include site-based learning experiences. Capella learners should confirm that their internship or practicum site has the appropriate approvals to conduct professional services.	2 years and 3,500 hours, minimum 1 year post-degree. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP).
North Carolina	Psychologist	North Carolina regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet North Carolina's residency requirement.	N/A
North Dakota	Psychologist	North Dakota regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet North Dakota's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in the Northern Mariana Islands. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Northern Mariana Islands professional license should contact the relevant state board. HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONS LICENSING BOARD P.O. Box 502078, Bldg., 1242 Pohnpei Court Capitol Hill, Saipan, MP 96950 (670) 664-4809 cnmi@cnmibpl-hcplb.net https://cnmibpl-hcplb.net/default.asp?secID=3	N/A
Ohio	Psychologist	Ohio regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Ohio accepts completion of a doctoral degree in psychology from a regionally accredited institution and 3600 hours of qualifying supervised training/internship. Ohio requires graduates of institutions not accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA) to complete a 1500 - 2000 hour supervised doctoral internship and an 1800 hour post-doctoral supervised internship. Capella's program is not APA accredited. Capella's program includes a 2000 hour supervised internship as a graduation requirement of the degree program. Capella graduates will need to complete an 1800 hour post-doctoral supervised internship.	3,600 hours; 1,800 hours post-doctoral. Graduates of programs that do not hold academic program accreditation are still required to complete a minimum of 3,600 hours of qualifying supervised training, including no fewer than 1,800 hours of supervised post-doctoral experience. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP).
Oklahoma	Psychologist	Oklahoma regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Oklahoma's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Oregon	Psychologist	Oregon regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Oregon's residency requirement.	N/A

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Pennsylvania	Psychologist	Pennsylvania regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Pennsylvania's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Puerto Rico	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Puerto Rico. Learners who are interested in pursuing an Puerto Rico professional license should contact the relevant state board. Junta Examinadora de Psicólogos de Puerto Rico PO Box 10200, Santurce, PR 00908 787-999-8989 ext. 6588 junta.psicologos@salud.pr.gov https://www.salud.gov.pr/CMS/130	N/A
Rhode Island	Psychologist	Rhode Island regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Rhode Island's accreditation requirement.	N/A
South Carolina	Psychologist	South Carolina regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet South Carolina's residency requirement.	N/A
South Dakota	Psychologist	South Dakota regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet South Dakota's residency requirement.	N/A
Tennessee	Psychologist	Tennessee regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Tennessee's accreditation requirement.	N/A
Texas	Licensed Psychologist	Texas regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Texas requires completion of a doctorate degree psychology from a regionally accredited university.	2 years and 3,500 hours. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP), State Jurisprudence exam, and Provisionally licensed psychologists must take and pass the Oral Exam.
US Virgin Islands	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in the US Virgin Islands. Learners who are interested in pursuing a US Virgin Islands professional license should contact the relevant state board. USVI Board of Psychology Examiners 1303 Hospital Ground, Suite 10, St Thomas, VI 00802 340-774-0117 board@usvippsychologyboard.com https://www.usvippsychologyboard.com/	N/A
Utah	Psychologist	Utah regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Utah's accreditation requirement.	N/A

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: This document contains regulatory research on each state's specific professional licensure rules and regulations compared to Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure	Post-Graduate Requirements
Vermont	Psychologist	Vermont regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont accepts a doctoral degree in psychology approved by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB) or accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA) that meets specific coursework. Graduates from non-accredited programs can supply detailed information about the program for Board review. Capella's program is not ASPPB approved or APA accredited. Capella graduates will need to submit detailed information about the program for Board review.	4,000 hours, of which 2,000 hours completed post-grad in no less than 1 year. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the State Jurisprudence exam.
Virginia	Clinical Psychologist	Virginia regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. As of June 23rd, 2028, Virginia will require applicants for the Clinical Psychologist license to complete an American Psychological Association (APA) accredited program. Capella's program is not APA accredited.	N/A
Washington	Licensed Psychologist	Washington regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Washington's residency requirement.	N/A
West Virginia	Psychologist	West Virginia regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. West Virginia accepts completion of a doctoral degree in psychology from a regionally accredited university with specific content areas.	Applicants who have not completed a pre-doctoral or post-doctoral internship approved by the American Psychological Association (APA) are required to complete 2 years of supervision. Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and the State Jurisprudence exam.
Wisconsin	N/A	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Wisconsin. Learners who are interested in pursuing a Wisconsin professional license should contact the relevant state board. Psychology Examining Board - DSPS PO Box 8366, Madison, WI 53708-8366 (608) 266-2112 dsps@wi.gov https://dsps.wi.gov/Pages/Professions/Psychologist/Default.aspx	N/A
Wyoming	Psychologist	Wyoming regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will not meet Wyoming's residency requirement.	N/A