

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	School Psychologist	Alabama regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alabama accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and a master's degree or higher from a regionally accredited senior institution. Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam and the Alabama Educator Certification Assessment Program (AECAP), to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Alaska	Special Services Certificate (Type C) School Psychology	Alaska regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alaska accepts a doctoral degree in school psychology accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) with specific internship requirements. Alaska requires mandatory trainings in specific content areas provided by an approved Alaska public school district, or the Alaska Department of Education &amp; Early Development (DEED) and Alaska-specific coursework provided by an Alaska college or university. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Applicants must complete the Alaska public school district or DEED approved mandatory trainings before applying for licensure. Applicants can go to the DEED website for a list of DEED approved eLearning trainings. Applicants must enroll in an Alaska college or university to complete the Alaska-specific coursework requirements. This coursework can be completed after graduating Capella's program. This coursework must be completed within two years of the date of initial application. Applicants can go to the DEED website for a list of approved Alaska colleges or universities.
American Samoa	None	American Samoa does not currently offer a state license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Arizona	School Psychologist, PreK-12 Certificate	Arizona regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Arizona requires completion of a graduate program in school psychology consisting of 90 quarter credits, and a 1200 clock hour supervised internship of which a minimum of 600 clock hours must be completed in a school setting. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arkansas	School Psychologist	Arkansas regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella University is not accepting applications from Arkansas residents for Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program.
California	PPS - Clear Credential - Specialization in School Psychology	California regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. California requires completion of a 90 quarter credit post baccalaureate professional preparation program comparable to a program accredited by the Committee on Accreditation in the requested pupil personnel services area of specialization, including successful completion of a supervised field practice appropriate to the specialization area, in a school setting in direct contact with pupils. Capella applicants will need to submit an original letter from the program on University letterhead and signed by the program chair stating the applicant has completed all of the program requirements and is eligible to be issued the credential in that state. The letter should also state that the educator completed a practicum of supervised field experience with school aged children.
Colorado	School Psychologist Ages 0-21	Colorado regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Colorado accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral program for the preparation of school psychologists, serving children/students ages birth-21, from an accepted institution of higher education; and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Connecticut	School Psychologist	Connecticut regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Connecticut accepts completion of a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits in specific content areas from a regionally accredited university.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	School Psychologist Standard Certificate	Delaware regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Delaware accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
District of Columbia	School Psychologist	The District of Columbia's regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. The District of Columbia requires completion of a master's degree in school psychology with 63 quarter credits of specific coursework. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 500 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting under the supervision of a certified school psychologist.
Florida	Certification in School Psychology (Grades PK-12)	Florida regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet state requirements for professional licensure. Florida requires completion of a doctorate degree with a specialization in school psychology which includes a 1200-hour supervised internship with at least six-hundred 600 hours of supervised internship completed in an elementary or secondary school setting and a passing score on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in an elementary or secondary school setting. Please be aware that Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam will incur additional associated fees.
Georgia	School Psychology Certificate	Georgia regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Georgia accepts completion of a state-approved specialist's or higher degree in school psychology.
Guam	None	Guam does not currently offer a state license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Hawaii	School Psychologist	Capella's research indicates Hawaii does not have any formal credentialing process at the state level. Individual job postings identify expected requirements, though they tend to abide by the following requirements: A degree from a regionally accredited college or university in school psychology, educational psychology, counseling psychology, or a closely related field provided that certain courses were included. Also requires an internship in a school setting. Applicants must also demonstrate 4 years of responsible professional experience as a school psychologist which involved working with children. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the job posting requirements above if certain conditions are fulfilled. Learners or graduates will also need to complete 4 years of responsible professional experience as a school psychologist which involved working with children. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Idaho	Pupil Personnel Services Cert - School Psychologist Endorsement	Idaho regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Idaho accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits, and completion of a 1200 clock hour internship.
Illinois	Professional Educator License - School Psychologist Endorsement	Illinois regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Illinois accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral degree in school psychology with course work in specific content areas. Illinois learners must add additional coursework to meet specific content areas. Illinois content area: Methods of Instruction of the Exceptional Child Capella course: PSY8150 Exceptional Children in the Classroom Illinois content area: Methods of Reading Capella course (choose one): ED5551 Developing Fluent Readers ED5552 Teaching Comprehension Strategies ED5554 Sociocultural Context of Reading Instruction Illinois content area: Instructional Strategies for English Language Learners Capella course: ED5728 Methods, Curriculum, and Materials for English Language

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	School Services: School Psychologist	Indiana regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Indiana accepts completion of a master's degree that is approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and has an evaluation process for non-NASP approved programs to determine if NASP standards have been met. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP-approved. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for the Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by NASP. Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is common. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Iowa	School Psychologist (B-21)	Iowa regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa accepts completion of a doctoral degree program of at least 90 quarter credits with specific coursework, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	School Psychologist (PK-12)	Kansas regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kansas requires out-of-state applicants to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella University graduates are considered out-of-state applicants. Capella graduates will first need to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation. To obtain the Arizona School Psychologist license, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once an out-of-state credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that each state license will incur additional associated fees.
Kentucky	School Psychologist	Kentucky regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Kentucky requires completion of a Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) approved program. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology is not KDE approved.
Louisiana	Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A as awarded by the Louisiana Department of Education or Licensed Specialists in School Psychology as awarded by the Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Psychologists	Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A as awarded by the Louisiana Department of Education Louisiana regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure for a Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Louisiana accepts completion of a doctoral program in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits from a regionally accredited university, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees. Licensed Specialists in School Psychology as awarded by the Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Psychologists Louisiana regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure as a Licensed Specialists in School Psychology. The Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Psychologists requires that online programs be approved by the Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP-approved.
Maine	School Psychologist Certificate (093)	Maine regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Maine accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits of coursework in specific content areas and a 1500 hour supervised internship with 50% (750 clock hours) in a school setting. Capella learners must ensure they obtain acceptable documentation that 50% (750 clock hours) of their supervised internship was in providing psychological services to children in school system(s) and demonstrated competency in a school setting.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Maryland	School Psychologist	Maryland regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Maryland accepts completion of a state-approved master's or higher degree in school psychology, culminating a 1,200-hour internship; and a qualifying score of 147 on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam.
Massachusetts	Professional Support Personnel License, School Psychologist	Massachusetts regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Massachusetts requires completion of a program approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved.
Michigan	School Psychologist Certificate	Michigan regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Michigan accepts completion of a state-approved specialist-level or the equivalent degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits and an out-of-state license. Capella graduates will first need to obtain an Arizona School Psychologist license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners will need to ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona license is granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that each state license will incur additional associated fees.
Minnesota	School Psychologist	Minnesota regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Minnesota accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Mississippi	School Psychologist	Mississippi regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Mississippi requires completion of a program approved by National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Missouri	School Psychologist	Missouri regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Missouri accepts completion of a state-approved specialist or higher degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits in specific content areas and a 1200 clock hour supervised internship. Missouri recommends that out-of-state applicants first obtain a license in the state where the program is approved. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation. Missouri considers Capella University graduates out-of-state applicants. Missouri applicants will first need to obtain the Arizona School Psychologist license before applying for the Missouri state license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that each state license will incur additional associated fees.
Montana	Specialist, School Psychologist endorsement (K-12)	Montana regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Montana accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and completes the free on-line course "An Introduction to Indian Education for All in Montana." Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Capella learners will also need to complete the free on-line course "An Introduction to Indian Education for All in Montana." Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Nebraska	School Psychologist endorsement	Nebraska regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Nebraska accepts completion of graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits with 1200 clock hours of supervised internship.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	School Psychologist (K-12)	Nevada regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nevada accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits of coursework in specific content areas, 1,000 hours of supervised internship, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella learners must ensure 500 clock hours of internship are served in an accredited school system or a school system which is approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
New Hampshire	School Psychologist endorsement or Associate School Psychologist	New Hampshire regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. New Hampshire accepts completion of a state-approved doctorate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits.
New Jersey	Educational Services Personnel Standard Certificate School Psychologist Endorsement	New Jersey regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Jersey accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours are completed in a school setting with school age children. Capella graduates must obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Mexico	School Psychologist (PreK-12) Level 1	New Mexico regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. New Mexico accepts completion of a doctoral degree in school psychology that includes specific coursework, a 600 clock hour internship with specific parameters, and a score of at least 156 on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours of their internship are completed in a school-related setting and are supervised by a New Mexico School Psychologist (PreK-12) Level 3 license holder. Capella learners will need to obtain a 156 or better on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam.
New York	Provisional Certificate - School Psychologist  to  Permanent Certificate - School Psychologist	New York regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. In New York school psychologists first obtain a Provisional Certificate and after conditions are fulfilled become eligible for a Permanent Certificate. For a Provisional Certificate, New York requires applicants to hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education, and shall have completed an additional 90 quarter hours of graduate study, including a college-supervised internship in the field of school psychology. For a Permanent Certificate, 2 years of school experience in the field of pupil personnel services are required. Within the total program of preparation, the candidate shall have been awarded a master's degree. 2 years of school experience in the field of pupil personnel services must be fulfilled in order to obtain the Permanent Certificate.
North Carolina	School Psychologist	North Carolina regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Carolina accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates must obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this program with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
North Dakota	School Psychologist	North Dakota regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. North Dakota requires completion of a National Association of School Psychologist (NASP) approved program. Capella's PsyD in Psychology, School Psychology is not NASP approved.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Northern Mariana Islands	None	The Northern Mariana Islands do not currently offer a state license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Ohio	School Psychologist	Ohio regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Ohio accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Oklahoma	School Psychologist	Oklahoma regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Oklahoma accepts completion of a state-approved degree in school psychology and a passing score on the Oklahoma School Psychologist (033) exam or the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella graduates will need to pass either the Oklahoma School Psychologist (033) exam or the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Oregon	Reciprocal School Psychologist	Oregon regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oregon requires out-of-state learners to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella graduates will need to obtain an Arizona School Psychologist license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that each state license will incur additional associated fees.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Pennsylvania	CSPG 81 - School Psychologist (PK-12)	Pennsylvania regulations indicate Capella's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Pennsylvania accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral degree in school psychology from a regionally accredited university.
Puerto Rico	General Psychologist with a specialization in School Psychology	Puerto Rico regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Puerto Rico accepts a doctoral degree from a psychology program from a institution of higher education, a supervised practice or internship of 1500 hours, and a passing score of 70% on the Examen de la Junta Examinadora para la Práctica Profesional de la Psicología (EJE-PPP). Capella learners must complete the EJE-PPP after they have submitted their initial applicaton to the board. Please be aware that the EJE-PPP will incur additional associated fees.
Rhode Island	Support Professional Certificate, School Psychologist	Rhode Island regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Rhode Island accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
South Carolina	School Psychologist Certification III	South Carolina regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. South Carolina accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral degree in school psychology. Please be aware that applications for required licensing exams and applications for state license or professional certification will require additional fees.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Dakota	School Psychologist	South Dakota regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Dakota accepts a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology in specific content areas, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Tennessee	School Psychologist	Tennessee regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Tennessee accepts completion of a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology.
Texas	Licensed Specialist in School Psychology (LSSP)	Texas regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Texas accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology from a regionally accredited university with at least 90 quarter credits that includes specific coursework and 1200 clock hours of supervised internship. Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours of supervised internship is completed in a public school, supervised by a Licensed Psychologist. Internship hours must be obtained in not more than two placements.
US Virgin Islands	None	The US Virgin Islands do not currently offer a state license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Utah	School Psychologist Level 1	Utah regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Utah accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Vermont	School Psychologist	Vermont regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees.
Virginia	School Psychology	Virginia regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia accepts completion of a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90 quarter credits from a regionally accredited institution and an internship with specific parameters. Capella learners will need to obtain at least one half of their internship hours in an accredited school setting at multiple age levels.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Washington	Educational Staff Associate - School Psychologist Certificate (Residency level)	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Washington. Learners who are interested in pursuing an Washington professional license should contact the relevant state board. State of Washington Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction                      P.O. Box 47200, 600 Washington St. SE, Olympia, WA 98504-7200                      Professional Certification Office                      360-725-6400                      Cert@k12.wa.us                      Certification Customer Service: http://ospi.certification.sgizmo.com/s3/  https://www.k12.wa.us/certification/educational-staff-associate-certificates/esa-first-time-applicant/school-psychologist-first-time
West Virginia	Professional Student Support Certificate (Out-of-State) - School Psychologist as awarded by the West Virginia Department of Education or School Psychologist Level 1 as awarded by the West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists	Professional Student Support Certificate (Out-of-State) School Psychologist as awarded by the West Virginia Department of Education                      West Virginia regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. The West Virginia Department of Education requires programs to be approved by the Educator Preparation Programs Review Board (EPPRB) and the West Virginia Board of Education (WVBE). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not EPPRB or WVBE approved. School Psychologist Level 1 as awarded by the West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists                      Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in West Virginia. Learners who are interested in pursuing a West Virginia professional license should contact the relevant state board. West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists                      304-558-3040                      psychbd@wv.gov                      www.psychbd.wv.gov
Wisconsin	School Psychologist	Capella University has not yet determined whether this program meets the educational requirements for licensure in Wisconsin. Learners who are interested in pursuing an Wisconsin professional license should contact the relevant state board. Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction                      125 S. Webster Street, Madison, WI 53703                      Phone: (608) 266-3390                      Support: https://dpi.wi.gov/support/contact-us                      Website: https://dpi.wi.gov/licensing/pathways-licensure/oos-pathways

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee licensure, it is your responsibility to understand and comply with state licensing requirements.

Updated 2022

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wyoming	Specialist in School Psychology License awarded by the Wyoming Board of Psychology or Professional Services Endorsement for School Psychologist awarded by the Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board (PTSB)	Specialist in School Psychology License awarded by the Wyoming Board of Psychology Wyoming regulations indicate completing Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Wyoming accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90 quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (Praxis (5402) school psychologist and state-specific), state licenses, and the NCSP credential will incur additional associated fees. Professional Services Endorsement for School Psychologist awarded by the Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board (PTSB) Wyoming regulations indicate Capella's PsyD in Psychology, School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Wyoming requires school psychologist applicants to hold a Wyoming Educator License. Capella's PsyD in Psychology, School Psychology will not lead to any level educator license.